

9 reasons why cork is having a style revival

HOME ▶ ARTICLES

SHARE f t p g+

Durable, textural and versatile, this natural material looks great on furniture, lighting and accessories

1. Salta cushion

Inspired by Argentina's salt flats, this Salta cushion (above), 45cm sq, from Mind The Cork, represents a blue sky above a high desert plain. Owing to cork's water-resistant qualities, the cushion is perfect for use indoors and out. It is available with a duck-feather or poly-cotton inner pad.

2. Stanley stool

Add a pop of colour to your home with this stackable Stanley stool, H44xdiam34cm, by Wrong for Hay at Nest. It is made from a bent steel tube frame with a cork seat and comes in five shades, including Light Grey, Dark Grey, Orange, Bordeaux and Green (above).

